MARTIAL ARTS

TRAINING

GUIDE

Welcome to Satori Dojo!

Satori Dojo is a community based, non-profit organization that has served the Phoenixville community since 1994. At Satori Dojo, it is our mission to deliver a positive martial arts training experience that helps our students grow as martial artists and people, thereby improving all aspects of their lives. Martial arts training has many benefits, perhaps the greatest of which is making excellence a habit. By addressing the physical, mental, and spiritual needs of the individual, a strong foundation is created for exploring one's fullest potential in life.

Physically, Satori Dojo students train to master a martial arts curriculum of progressively more sophisticated and more challenging techniques and concepts. While the physical techniques teach students the tools necessary for effective self-defense, the dedicated, systematic practice of the martial arts in general helps students become more physically fit, coordinated, dexterous, and confident, which should help them live life more successfully, happily and healthfully overall.

Practicing the martial arts develops the mind. This development of mind grows in part through the learning of self-discipline, or gaining mental control over one's mind and body. Satori Dojo students are encouraged to be open minded and willing to learn new things. This mental flexibility keeps the mind pliable and helps students to learn more as martial artists and to grow in all aspects of life.

Spiritually, challenging martial arts training helps students develop a non-defeatist attitude. They learn that failing is just a part of learning, and life. By learning how to set attainable short-term goals, how to stay focused and be determined pursuing those goals, as well as how to practice consistently, students can learn to do just about anything as a martial artist and person.

In the end, the real point of training in the martial arts is to develop ourselves as people and martial artists so that we can better serve our fellow human beings and the world. This ability is the true great gift of training in the martial arts, especially at Satori Dojo.

"Vision without action is a dream soon forgotten."

- O Sensei Ngo Dong

Re-Envisioning The Dream

Over many centuries, many different styles of martial arts have evolved around the globe, each with its own focus and methods of fighting. Some emphasize grappling, while others concentrate on striking or joint locking, and still others focus on the use of weaponry. O Sensei Ngo Dong, the founder of Cuong Nhu, studied several martial arts styles and recognized early on in his career that each had strengths and weaknesses and that no one style was superior to any other. He concluded that a well-rounded martial artist must be exposed to many styles of fighting, pioneering this understanding three decades before the emergence of mixed martial arts.

Joe Varady joined Cuong Nhu Oriental Martial Arts in 1987 and earned his black belt in 1990. He founded Satori Dojo in 1994. In 2016, he was promoted to master (sixth degree). A professional teacher with a Master's degree in education, Master Joe authored six martial arts manuals that comprehensively explained every technique necessary for a martial arts curriculum. After more than three decades of experience training, teaching, and listening to student feedback, Master Joe redesigned and updated Satori Dojo's curriculum and teaching methods using a common educational methodology called goal-oriented instruction.

Goal oriented instruction begins with deciding what knowledge and skills you want your students to know, understand, and be able to do and then, working backwards from that goal, developing logical progressions to obtain those goals, and dividing each progression into easily digestible chunks that become the instructional map for teaching students how to reach the goals. Master Joe started with what a Satori Dojo student should know, understand, and be able to execute by black belt.

Re-envisioning the curriculum was not a task that Master Joe took lightly. It was very important to him to stay true to the original mission established by O Sensei for Cuong Nhu, as he understood it. He knew that his students needed enough knowledge and understanding about key concepts in each of the main influential styles of martial arts in order to apply them in self-defense. Master Joe, therefore, made a conscious and concerted effort to systematically unify and integrate a diverse array of martial arts knowledge he had acquired that had been proven effective time and time again over the course of his thirty years of experience training, fighting, and teaching the martial arts to many students. The result was his concise, functional, and systematic Satori Dojo curriculum.

The Satori curriculum includes wing chun drills, boxing techniques, judo throws, aikido movement, and much more. Each piece of its curriculum was carefully chosen because it added practicality and functionality to the overall system. The result is a methodologically sound formula for creating a new generation of proficient and well-rounded martial artists.

Master Joe believes that he is not only providing his students at Satori Dojo with an outstanding, well-rounded martial arts education, but that he is also being faithful to the ideals of Cuong Nhu, as originally outlined by its Founder, O Sensei Ngo Dong.

"Start the revolution within yourself."

- O Sensei Ngo Dong

Part One: CHILDREN'S CURRICULUM

Understanding the Ranking System

The curriculum to black belt consists of a wide range of techniques and skills that take several years to learn and master. For ease of learning, the children's curriculum is divided into stages, not unlike the grades kids go through in school. Each stage is represented by a different belt color. There are small steps between each solid colored belt that are tracked with stripes.

White, yellow, purple, and blue belts are all considered beginner ranks. They can be equated to the elementary school grades. The green belt and subsequent brown stripes are the intermediate ranks, much like middle school. The brown belt and black stripes are the advanced ranks, the equivalent of high school. When a student earns their junior black belt, they have graduated from the children's curriculum!

Transitioning from the Children's to the Adult Curriculum

While the children's and adult's curriculums roughly parallel each other, there are some discrepancies. While the children's curriculum continues through junior black belt, there are times when a student might outgrow the kids' class and desire to make the transition to the adult class. Transitioning to the adult curriculum looks different for every student based on his or her personal needs and abilities, but there are generally three paths:

1) The first path is to start all over at white belt in the adult class, relearning the adult curriculum from the beginning. Advancement would naturally be accelerated according to the student's abilities. While this path is longer, it gives the student the advantage of relearning the entire curriculum at a much deeper level. This path is best for a student who needs additional time to mature before he or she achieves a level of discipline and skill commensurate to an equivalent adult rank, or for a student who is returning from an extended absence.

2) The second path is to study the adult curriculum up to one's current rank, learning any missing curriculum material along the way. After the student has met all the requirements and expectations (including written tests and video requirements), he or she would be tested for an adult rank of the same level. This path is best for a more skilled student who has a good understanding of the entire curriculum up to their current rank.

3) If the student has earned a Junior Black Belt, then their next task is to complete the requirements to earn an Adult Black Belt as though he or she were the rank of an adult Two Black Stripe, particularly the prescreening video requirement. Since they have not done any prescreening videos yet, they will be required to video the entire curriculum from 1 green stripe through black belt.

Part Two: ADULT CURRICULUM

Walking the Path

The path to black belt can be daunting, to say the least. It is said that every journey begins with a single step and that a slow and steady pace wins the race. These ideas have never been truer than when training in the martial arts. Taking responsibility for your training by becoming an active participant in your martial arts education increases the likelihood of a successful journey to black belt and is simply a matter of proper effort. It takes discipline and dedication to find the time, energy, and motivation to train. To get the most out of your martial arts training, you need to commit to do the following:

- Attend class regularly
- Give 100% effort in class
- Practice at home
- Eat a well-balanced diet and be fit
- Keep a training log
- Read manuals and watch instructional videos
- Read other martial arts books and write reviews (Get books from Satori Dojo's own library!)
- Compile a martial arts portfolio to demonstrate your readiness to test

These tasks take time to develop and to do well; however, they are guaranteed to enhance your entire experience as a martial artist.

First, attend class regularly and apply yourself 100% during each class. Good attendance and consistent effort on your part will help create a solid foundation upon which all your future lessons will be based. You don't get disciplined by cutting yourself breaks, and your learning doesn't stop after class.

In addition to going to class, you should practice regularly at home. These home training sessions can be short or long, depending on your time available, and know that every minute on task counts. Home workouts can include reviewing the curriculum up to your rank using such support materials as the Cuong Nhu manuals (written by Master Joe) as well as the many documents and videos available to you on the Satori Dojo website. You can also use the Standardized Workout and Test (SWAT) sheets to guide your training. Let your instructor know before class where you need more help so that he/she can help you to improve.

Keeping a training log is an important learning tool. Your training log could be a simple calendar or notebook. Record when you train and for how long, as well as write a short description of what you practiced. Attendance totals will be needed for your training summary sheet.

Tracking Your Progress

Use a copy of your requirement page as checklist to help keep track of your training. If you have read about a technique, mark it with an X. Once you have been formally taught a technique, add a check, and, each time you practice on your own, add a tally. For example:

	Satori Dojo Adult Curriculum One Green Stripe
Techniques	Training	Testing
Stances ✓ Natural stance X III I ✓ Attention stance X III III ✓ Rectangular stance X III III ✓ Kicking stance X III III ✓ Forward stance X III III ✓ Cat stance X III III ✓ Diagonal stance X II Hand Techniques ✓ Lunge punch X III I ✓ Reverse punch X II	Kata and Bunkai ✓ Taikyoku X III I ✓ Kata 2-5 X III Kumite Blitz attack X I Blocks and Punches Basic blocking with consecutive counterattacks (lower, middle, rising)	Time in Rank ✓ Three months ✓ 24 classes History and Philosophy ✓ History of Cuong Nhu X III ✓ History of Shotokan Karate X ✓ Three-O's Principle X III Code of Ethics: Tenet 1 ✓ Five Firsts for Friendship X III ✓ Five S's for Warm-ups X III ✓ Five A's for Self Defense X III

For each rank, you will be required to complete a written examination on martial arts history and Cuong Nhu (say Satori Dojo?) philosophy. Knowing this material impacts your martial arts as well as your life in general. Making a set of “philosophy flashcards” will help you study. When you are ready to take the test, print and complete your written exam (available on the website) and turn it in to your instructor to be graded. Completed exams are due two weeks before the test.

For some ranks, you are required to write an essay. Instructors can help you with brainstorming and editing your essay. Give yourself time to rewrite and revise well before your due date.

Reading books compliments your understanding of your training and of the martial arts in general. Writing a book review will help you to process what you’ve read. All the books on Satori Dojo’s recommended reading list are available from our dojo library.

Your training summary sheet reflects your training efforts since your last promotion. Think of it as your martial arts resume. Include information such as time in rank, number of workouts, and special events like seminars or tournaments. Show that you have fulfilled the requirements for your next rank and are fully prepared to test. Include this sheet along with your written paper and graded exams and send everything to your instructor in a single PDF document (less than 25 MB) at least two weeks before your test.

SWAT Sheets

Standardized workouts and tests, or SWAT Sheets, are designed to provide our instructors and students with a concrete and systematic, yet flexible, framework for effective instruction, training, and testing. The SWAT Sheets are useful guidelines that help create and grow motivated, successful instructors and students over time, which raises the bar of everyone's martial arts abilities.

Each workout is tailored specifically to include all of the requirements for each rank, in a series of creative, progressive exercises. Initially, as instructors learn how to teach and students learn how to train, the SWAT Sheets are best used by teaching and executing the exercises in the order in which they appear because the exercises are cumulative and build upon previous drills and activities. However, they are not designed to constrain teaching or training. Experienced instructors and growing students will develop their own ways of using the SWAT Sheets to enhance the delivery of instruction, learning of material, and manner of practicing over time.

Optimally, the SWAT sheet should be completed in a single workout. Obviously, this will not always be the case, especially during the early phases of training for a new rank. Instructors must learn to read their group's ability level. It is important to move at an appropriate learning pace for the particular group of students you are instructing at that moment. If you go too fast, the students may get frustrated, and, if you move too slowly, they may get bored.

It is important that instructors know how to differentiate instruction to meet particular student needs. Support the students as they are learning. Then, challenge them more as they become more proficient.

After several months of consistent instruction and practice, students should become proficient at all exercises in the SWAT Sheet. At that time, they may be considered for promotion to their next rank. Students can use these SWAT Sheets to prepare on their own for their rank test.

SWAT sheets are cumulative. Therefore, instructors may draw at any time from any SWAT Sheets for the current rank and below.

Home Study Checklists

While much of your martial arts training occurs in the dojo during normal class times with the help of instructors and assistant instructors, there are other aspects of your training that you must be responsible on your own because only you can do them. The Home Study Checklist is an important part of your martial arts training at Satori Dojo because it allows you to keep track of these vital portions of your training that are often otherwise overlooked.

Videos and Practice

Watching Satori Dojo's instructional videos (available on our YouTube channel) is like taking class, but at your own pace, in the comfort of your own home, or anywhere for that matter. Studying the videos is another way of reinforcing the material that you have already been taught in class. It is recommended that you watch each video at least 3 times, at intervals optimal for your learning.

It is also essential that you practice what is presented in each video on your own until you feel comfortable performing the material. It is recommended that you train the material from each video at least 3 times before testing for your next rank.

History and Philosophy

Studying martial arts history is important because the knowledge you gain provides you with a greater perspective of the evolution, and hence current condition, of the martial arts. This perspective helps lead to a deeper understanding of the universal concepts that exist between styles and broadens your own abilities with them.

We also study Martial Arts Philosophy. The philosophy imparts important wisdom that every martial arts student should know. It is chunked into lists to make it easier to memorize; however, closer examination can reveal valuable wisdom concerning everything from training to interpersonal relationships to personal happiness.

Reading

Reading books related to your martial arts studies will help your development into a better, well-rounded, and educated martial artist.

Recommended Reading: You should read the specific martial arts related book recommended for each rank. Specific titles are provided and available from the dojo library. There is also space for an additional martial arts related book of your choosing. Writing a book report afterwards will help you to process its material and its relevance to your training.

Testing Procedures

At Satori dojo, we are constantly looking for the best ways to support our students. This goal has led us to update and improve our current testing procedures for adults. It is our hope that the guidelines below will lay out a clear path of advancement for every student.

Step 1: Attend classes regularly. Use the Satori Dojo Training Guide and videos to augment your training outside of scheduled class times. Let your instructor know specifically what material you need help with. Fill out the Home Study Checklists as you review and practice each technique.

Step 2: Starting at Green Belt, when you feel you are ready, submit a video of you performing each requirement for your rank to the testing panel for review. Use the column marked PSV (Prescreening Videos) or the Rank/Progression Chart (below) as your checklist. Present yourself in a professional manner (Satori gear or clean gi, video framed well, no distractions, etc.). When you have successfully completed the video prescreening requirement for your rank, you will be ready for step 3.

Step 3: Once you have completed all of the requirements for testing, including written exam, training summary sheet, etc., an in-person test based on, but not limited to, the SWAT sheet for the rank you are testing for will be scheduled. This means that you will know the majority of what will be asked of you ahead of time. The goal is to help you be as prepared as possible and set you up for SUCCESS!

Black Belt: As a culminating activity, a candidate testing for the rank of Black Belt should complete a cumulative curriculum review, submitting the videos to a panel of instructors for approval. While this time-consuming task requires determination and persistence, the act of making the videos helps the candidate to develop a critical eye, refine their techniques, and enhance their understanding of the curriculum.

Prescreening Video Requirements

White Belt to Green Belt

Before a student earns their green belt, they are not required to complete any prescreening video requirements. However, since there is still much to be gained from watching one's performance, students are encouraged to video themselves practicing the requirements for their next rank, if only for personal review.

1 Brown Stripe to Brown Belt

The student must submit prescreening videos for their immediate rank requirements only.

1 Black Stripe

The student must submit prescreening videos for their immediate rank requirements as well as a cumulative review of the entire curriculum up to Green Belt.

2 Black Stripes

The student must submit prescreening videos for their immediate rank requirements as well as a cumulative review of the entire curriculum from 1 Brown Stripe to Brown Belt.

Black Belt

The student must submit prescreening videos for their immediate rank requirements, as well as a cumulative review of the 1 and 2 Black Stripe curriculums.

Shodan, Nidan, Sandan

The student must submit prescreening videos for their immediate rank requirements only.

Yondan

For the rank of Master, the student must submit prescreening videos for the entire curriculum from 1 Green Stripe to Shodan.

Godan and Above

The student must submit prescreening videos for their immediate rank requirements only.

KUMITE

Karate free sparring, known as jiyu-kumite, is one of the most important segments of karate training. It teaches you how to apply the basic techniques and elements of the art in a dynamic situation. However, karate sparring is about much more than winning or losing. Sparring aims to develop and improve your karate skills, such as timing, distancing, and control, while at the same time helping your partner improve as well. However, to be successful at kumite you will need more than just good technique. You will need to employ effective strategies and tactics that will enable your techniques to score.

Level I: Blitz Attack

One Green Stripe

Overwhelm your opponent with a quick barrage of powerful punches and kicks.

Level II: Load and Explode

Two Green Stripes

Deceive your opponent with a false retreat before springing back with a surprise attack!

Level III: Rear Leg Charge

Green Belt

Surprise your opponent with a leaping charge and straight blast of vertical punches.

Level IV: High-Low-High

One Brown Stripe

Make your opponent scramble to keep up with your effortless attacks.

Level V: Alley of Opportunity

Two Brown Stripes

Scoring with kicks has never been easier than when you sneak them up the Alley of Opportunity!

Level VI: Broken Rhythm

Brown Belt

Confound your opponent by continuously changing the timing of your techniques.

Level VII: Electric Shock

One Black Stripe

Shock your opponent with blindingly fast, electrifying counterattacks.

Level VIII: Dynamic Blind Spot

Two Back Stripes

When you use the dynamic blind spot, your opponent will never see what hit him!

Blocks and Punches

Blocks and punches is a great drill for training reaction time, focus, timing, conditioning, distancing, structure, and so much more!

The Progression

Level I: Basic Blocking

One Green Stripe

Basic blocking with consecutive counterattacks
Lower block, middle block, and rising block

Level II: Simultaneous Counterattacks

Two Green Stripes

Basic blocking with simultaneous counterattacks
Add outer block and knifehand block

Level III: Double Blocking

Green Belt

Add elbow block

Level IV: Soft Style Blocking

One Brown Stripe

Soft lower, soft middle, and soft rising block

Level V: Double Blocking with Counters

Two Brown Stripes

Double blocking with counterattacks (hard style blocks)
Soft style blocking
Add soft outer, soft knifehand, and soft elbow block

Level VI: Add Movement

Black Belt

Perform each block advancing and retreating. Use forward and back stances when performing the hard style blocks. Use hook stance when performing the soft style blocks.

JUDO

Level I: Uki goshi and Low side drop

Uki goshi (floating hip throw)
Low side drop

One Green Stripe

Level II: Foot Sweeps and Pins

Osoto gari (large outer reap)
Kosoto gari (small outer reap)
Kesa gatame (scarf hold)
Ouchi gari (large inner reap)
Kouchi gari (small inner reap)
Guard position
Yoko shiho gatame (side 4-corner hold)
Ude garami (entangled armlock)

One Brown Stripe

Level III: Hip Throw and Armlocks

Ogoshi (large hip throw)
Side drop
Ude gatame (armlock)
Ude hiza gatame (knee armlock)

Two Brown Stripes

Level IV: Mount and Finish

Seoi nage (shoulder throw)
Yoko otoshi (side drop)
Tani otoshi (valley drop)
Mount position
Juji jime (cross choke)
Juji gatame (cross armlock)

Brown Belt

Level V: Advanced Throws

Tomoe nage (circular throw)
Tai otoshi (body drop)
Harai goshi (hip sweep)

Black Belt

Level VI: Randori and Grappling

BOXING

Level I: Jab/Cross

One Green Stripe

1. The Crouch: Hands up, elbows in, knees bent, feet shoulder width, weight on the balls of your feet.

- A. Orthodox- left lead (favored by right handed boxers)
- B. Southpaw- right lead (favored by left handed boxers)

2. Footwork

- A. Stationary
- B. Advancing
- C. Retreating
- D. Circling (left and right)

3. The Jab (lead hand, the #1 punch)

- A. Footwork- see above
- B. Combinations
 - 1. Double/triple jab
 - 2. High/low, low/high

4. The Cross/Straight Right

- (rear hand, the #2 punch)
- A. Footwork - see above
- B. Combinations
 - 1. Jab/cross/jab (1-2-1)
 - 2. Jab/jab/cross (1-1-2)
 - 3. Change the rhythm
 - 4. Change the levels
 - 5. Change the angles

Level II: Hook/Uppercut

Two Green Stripes

1. The Hook (lead hook is number 3, rear hook is number 4)

- A. Footwork - see above
- B. Combinations
 - 1. Jab/hook (1-3)
 - 2. Jab/cross/hook (1-2-3)
 - 3. Hook to body/hook to head

2. Uppercut (lead uppercut is number 5, rear is 6)

- A. Footwork - see above
- B. Combinations
 - 1. Jab/jab/uppercut (1-1-6)
 - 2. Jab/cross/hook/uppercut (1-2-3-6)

3. Basic combination (jab, cross, hook, uppercut)

Level III: Basic Defense

Green Belt

A. Blocking

1. Defense against the jab

- A. Catching the jab
- B. Catch and return
- C. Parry and cross

2. Defense against the cross

- A. Shoulder block (roll and cover)
- B. Stop jab (jamming)

3. Defenses against the hook

- A. Forearm/elbow block
- B. Ducking

4. Defense against the uppercut

- A. Roll and cover
- B. Inside parry (brushing away)

B. The Clinch

Level IV: Evasion

Brown Belt

1. Ducking

- A. Pool noodle drill
- B. With a partner (focus mitts)

2. Bobbing and weaving

- A. Under rope/belt drill
- B. With a partner (focus mitts)

3. Slipping

- A. Slow work with gloves

4. Intermediate Combination:

Jab/Fade back/Jab/Cross/Lead hook to head/Lead hook to body

Level V: Strategy and Tactics

Black Belt

1. Combinations and footwork

- A. Inside/outside game
- B. Three types of timing (sen sen no sen, sen no sen, go no sen)
- C. Drawing/baiting (to provoke a particular attack)
- D. Feinting/programming

2. Advanced Combination

Jab/Fade/1-2-1/Step and slip/Double hook to body/Hook to head

Level VI: Sparring and Randori

Black Belt

~TRADITIONAL~ WING CHUN

Level I: Pak Sao Drills

One Green Stripe

1. Cross hand pak sao (develops proper structure and alignment).
2. Cross hand vertical punches (teaches centerline control).
3. Pak sao against vertical punches (alternating).
4. Pak sao against vertical punches (consecutive).

Level II: Tan Sao/Bong Sao Drills

Two Green Stripes

Tan Sao

1. Start with drill #2 above, then open hand for tan sao.
2. Progress from alternating tan sao to consecutive tan sao.
3. Pak sao (same side), tan sao (opposite side) with one arm.

Bong Sao

1. Develop proper structure and alignment by testing and leaning.
2. Bong sao defense against same side vertical punches (3-D, no rusty gate).
3. Bong sao to defend against cross hand vertical punches (consecutive).
4. Bong sao (same side) then tan sao (opposite side) with one arm.

Level III: Sil Lim Tao: Little Idea Form

Green Belt

1. See video for kata and applications.

Level IV: Single Arm Traditional Chi Sao

Two Brown Stripes

1. Solo - Bong sao / tan sao to air. Add pak sao.
2. Solo - Fook sao / jut sao to air. Add da (punch).
3. Partners - A does #1 above, B does #2 above, repeat. Develop flow.
4. Gate #1: Partner's jut sao is too hard, huen sao circle around into jut sao.
5. Gate #2: Partner's tan sao is too hard, huen sao circle into tan sao.

Level V: Double Arm Traditional Chi Sao

Brown Belt

1. Solo - single arm: bong sao / tan sao to air.
2. Partners - single arm: fook sao covers opponent's bong sao / tan sao.
3. Solo - double arm: bong sao / tan sao to air with other hand in fook sao.
4. Partners - double arm: fook sao covers opponent's bong sao / tan sao.
5. Alternating: Execute 3 repetitions of poon sao then tan strikes to ribs.
6. Chi Sao: Execute 3 repetitions of poon sao then strive for a continuous exchange of discernible techniques, with an emphasis on adherence or "sticking", not wrestling, shoving, or boxing. Kicking is allowed only if at least one hand is in contact with the opponent's arm.

Level VI: Free Style Traditional Chi Sao

Black Belt and Above

~Progressive~ WING CHUN

Level I: Pak Sao Drills

One Green Stripe

1. Reference #1: Opponents cross right hands at wrists.
2. Man Sao Defense: Defend with sweeping and sliding blocks.
3. Lap Sao/Da: Pull lead hand down with man sao and punch with wu sao.
4. Speed Drill: Follow-the-leader with pak sao: single, double, triple, etc.
5. Pak Sao/Da: Disengage guard with your wu sao while man sao punches.
6. Pak Sao/Da x2: Defender blocks short of centerline, repeat pak sao/da.

Level II: Lap Sao Drills

Two Green Stripes

1. Pak Sao/Lap Sao: Defender crosses center, counter w/lap sao, backfist.
2. Bong Sao/Lap Sao 1: Also called Rolling Backhands drill. Same side.
3. Bong Sao/Lap Sao 2: Grab partner's guard with lap sao to switch sides.
4. Lap Sao/Lap Sao: Defender blocks #1 above, counter with #3 above.

Level III: Fook Sao/Da

Green Belt

1. Programming: Pak sao/da twice, then pak sao/hook with cupped hand.
2. Micro-bumping: Use the opponent's reaction to your fook sao to punch.
3. Chain punching: Continuous flow of punches with trapping.

Level IV: Hubud

One Brown Stripe

Hubud can be performed using the same concept against attacks coming from many different angles. Variations include the outer chop (described above), vertical chop, inner chop, straight punch (4 step drill), and roundhouse elbow. Basic: Partner A throws a right horizontal outer chop; partner B turns into the technique with a left fook sao (hooking block) with the elbow kept down (1). Without breaking the energy flow of the initial attack, partner B's right hand parries the blow over her head with a fook sao to the outside of A's arm as the shoulders turn square (2). Partner B follows-up with a left pak sao (slapping block) checking A's arm as B's body finishes turning to the right. Partner B counterattacks with a right horizontal outer chop as her body turns square (4) and the drill repeats with partner A countering the attack (5&6).

Level V: Advanced Hubud

Black Belt

1. Empty hand: Six angles: outer, vertical inner, punch, elbow, and stab.
Add additional techniques such as blocks, traps, strikes, etc.
2. Weapons: Add weapons (stick and knife).

Level VI: Free Style Randori

Black Belt and Above

We derive our joint locking from the art of Aikido. While joint locking should not be your primary objective in a self-defense situation, you should be familiar with the basic ways to twist and lock an opponent's arm should the opportunity present itself. Joint locking also provides you with methods of control without inflicting unnecessary damage.

Practice each technique against the six basic grabs, a chop, and a punch. Utilize movement such as irimi (entering) and tenkan (turning). Incorporate atemi (striking) to stun your opponent before or even during a technique. Finish with a lock or pin. Ukes should begin with minimal resistance, and gradually increase the strength and realism of their attacks.

Level I: Kote Gaeshi (wrist twist)

One Brown Stripe

In kote gaeshi you want your opponent's arm bent, therefore begin the technique with a atemi strike such as a quick front snap kick to the groin.

Level II: Ude Osae (pressing arm)

Two Brown Stripes

In ude osae you want your opponent's arm straight, therefore a good atemi technique might be a quick tiger strike to the eyes. Collar your opponent's wrist, make a "J hook" to raise your opponent's hand above his shoulder. Take your partner to the ground as smoothly as possible. Follow up with the 5 finishes.

Level III: Shiho Nage (four direction throw) One Black Stripe

In shiho nage you want to pull your opponent's arm, then spin when he pulls back. There are two versions: ura (behind) has four moves, while omote (in front) only has three.

Level IV: Juji Nage (crossed arm throw)

Two Black Stripes

When practicing the crossed arm throw, remember that although the technique should be executed strongly, you must also be careful not to injure your partner during practice, so, since uke can't slap out, perform the throw slowly.

Level V: Kokyo Nage/Irimi Nage (over neck) Black Belt

There are two types of over neck throws, yin (kokyu nage) and yang (irimi nage). When performing yin style, face the same direction as your attacker, opposite hips touching, with your over neck hand palm up. When doing yang style, face the opposite direction as your attacker, same side hips touching, with your over neck hand palm down.

Level VI: Free Style Randori

Black Belt and Above

Self Defense

Self-defense is one of the main reasons that people train in the martial arts. However, there are very real differences between practicing kata applications, sparring, and learning practical, street self-defense. Self-defense needs to be proven effective in high stress scenarios, especially against larger, stronger opponents. Each of Satori's five self-defense sets focuses on the application of a different principle or technique. In the end, you should have the skills to defend yourself in a wide variety of real-world situations.

Level I: Tiger Claw Set

One Green Stripe

The tiger claw set is an easily learned combination of four strikes that each has a high probability of success in a variety of situations. These techniques are then linked in such a way that they not only flow naturally into one another, but each builds on the success (or failure) of the previous technique, allowing you to systematically attack your opponent's key bodily systems: visual, circulatory, respiratory and nervous.

Level II: Stamping Kick Set

Two Green Stripes

The stamping kick set uses low kicks to target your attacker's knees and disable his loco motor system. From there you continue through a commanding ten-move technique flow that combines boxing and karate to target your opponent's respiratory, circulatory, and nervous systems in quick succession.

Level III: Elbow Set

Green Belt

This set teaches you how to use some of your most devastating weapons, your elbows, to deliver powerful, bone-rattling blows to your attacker. In addition, you will learn different ways to lock, hyperextend, and even break your opponent's elbows if necessary. As in our previous sets, counterattacks systematically target your attacker's key body systems, reducing his ability and willingness to continue.

Level IV: Tambo Defense

Brown Belt

This set is instrumental in teaching you how to deal with an attacker who is armed with a short weapon. Tambo self-defense teaches you how to avoid the weapon, when and how to close the gap, and finally, how to disarm and finish your attacker.

Level V: Knife Defense

Black Belt

Any encounter with a knife-wielding attacker is about as serious and life threatening as a self-defense situation can be. This level teaches how to increase your odds of survival.

Level VI: Personal Defense Readiness (PDR) Black Belt and Above

Practicing free-form self-defense in reality-based situations.

Level I: Yang Grip Basics

Green Belt

1. Figure 8s: downward and upward
2. 14 basic strikes: stationary, retreating, and advancing
3. 6 Basic blocks: stationary, retreating, and advancing
4. Four-count sinawali (double tambo): sticks, partner, heavy bag

Level II: Yin Grip Basics

One Brown Stripe

1. Figure 8s: downward
2. 14 basic strikes: stationary, retreating, and advancing
3. 6 Basic blocks: stationary, retreating, and advancing
4. Six-count sinawali (double yang): sticks, partner, heavy bag

Level III: Tambo 1 and Applications

Two Brown Stripes

1. Tambo 1 and applications
2. Tres-tres

Level IV: Tambo vs. Tambo Disarms

Brown Belt

1. Long range
 - a. Use basic strikes to target the weapon hand
2. Medium range
 - a. Popping: block, grab, and use a hard style block to disarm
 - b. Hooking: with the butt
3. Close range
 - a. Double end grip: block and ram, scoop and disarm
 - b. Snaking with the free arm

Level V: Tambo 2 and Applications

Two Black Stripes

1. Tambo 2 and applications
2. Louie-ta-ta-ta

Level VI: Stick Fighting

Black Belt and Above

1. Padded weapons
2. Armored combat
3. Satori No Tambo: kata and applications

Level I: Basic Kobudo

One Brown Stripe

1. Downward striking (paddle the kayak)
2. Upward striking (backing up the kayak)
3. 2 downward then 2 upward strikes
4. 2 downward strikes then 1 upward strike
5. 2 upward strikes then 1 downward strike
6. Mixed Weapons: Perform with tambo and double tambo

Level II: Advanced Kobudo

Two Brown Stripes

1. 2 downward then 1 middle strike (top)
2. 2 downward then 1 middle strike (bottom)
3. 2 upward strikes then 1 middle strike (top)
4. 2 upward strikes then 1 middle strike (bottom)
5. 3 downward then 2 middle strikes (top and bottom)

Level III: Basic Middle Grip/Bo 1

Brown Belt

1. Figure 8s: downward, upward, and alternating/3 applications
2. The nine basic strikes: stationary, retreating, and advancing
3. Basic blocking: stationary, retreating, and advancing
4. Kata: Bo 1 and applications

Level IV: Advanced Middle Grip/Bo 2

One Black Stripe

1. Striking/disarming blocks (striking lead hand)
2. Double striking
3. Hooking disarms
4. Bo 2 and applications

Level V: Extended Grip/Bo 3

Two Black Stripes

1. Extended grip basic blocks and strikes
2. Extended grip figure 8s, downward and upward (apps, Donga drill)
2. Snap strikes and extended grip striking disarms
3. Fencing with the bo (change, double change, beat, and cutover)
4. Extended grip hooking disarms and locks
5. Bo 3 and applications

Level VI: Staff Fighting

Black Belt and Above

1. Padded weapons
2. Armored combat
3. Satori No Bo: kata and applications

BOARD BREAKING

Students should demonstrate a new technique for each rank. This will give the student four different techniques to perform for their black belt test. Failure to break any set of boards in the maximum number of trials will result in probation. Students between the ages of 14 and 18 or 40 to 50 may detract one board from each set. Students younger than 14 or older than 50 years of age are not required to break boards.
